

For those seeking a custom-designed holiday on the Indian subcontinent, Banyan Tours & Travels is the clear choice. From private prayer ceremonies in Varanasi, to private shopping in the markets of Jaipur, from the snowy peaks of the Indian Himalayas to festivals with painted cows in southern India, Banyan brings the traveler into the heart of the country in comfort and security. Small enough to be personal and large enough to have a competitive buying power and enviable relationship with hotels and suppliers, Banyan's expertise spreads to Sri Lanka and the Kingdom of Bhutan, where their own offices allow the team to deliver a personalized Banyan experience.

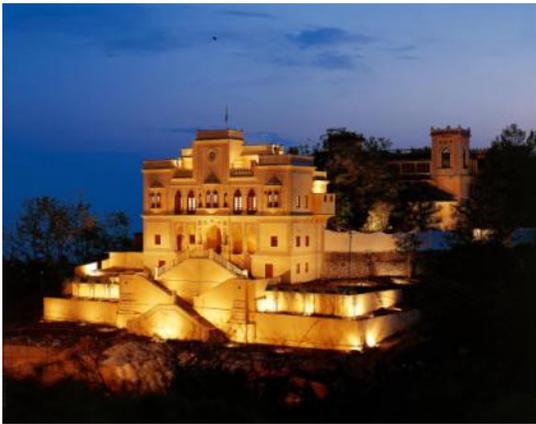

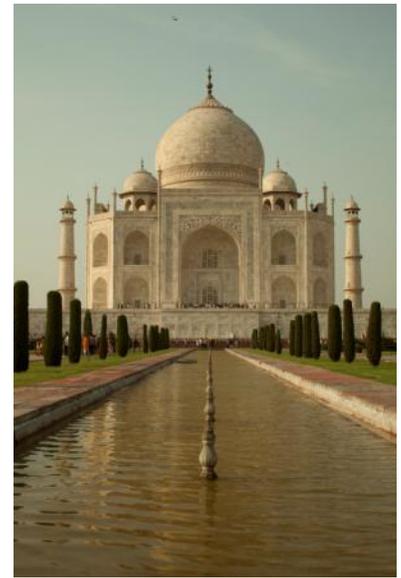

Established in 1996 in Bombay, Banyan is known for having the best panel of accompanying and local guides, an experienced and dedicated team of travel professionals who have in-depth product knowledge, a passion for the destinations, and an acute sensitivity to the demands of discerning clientele. Banyan has its own offices in Bombay, Delhi, Cochin, Goa, Calcutta, Jabalpur and Chennai - as well as international offices in Bhutan and Colombo. Banyan's pan-India presence allows the team to have a broad knowledge base and the capacity to handle any challenge.

Banyan Tours is proud to work with tour operator and agency partners to create and deliver precise itineraries for travelers who want to be immersed and challenged without compromising on comfort. Banyan offers experiences and activities which make the well trodden different and the remote exciting and safe.
