

The Beaumont

Grand, yet intimate, on a quiet Mayfair Square, The Beaumont is the realization of owners Jeremy King and Chris Corbin's dream to own a five-star hotel. The 73 Art Deco-style bedrooms and suites all boast original artwork, large rain showers and king-sized beds. Downstairs, decadent dining awaits at the Colony Grill, with its comfortably handsome ambience and specialties ranging from lobster à la Russe to red velvet cake and do-it-yourself ice cream sundaes. The best of Mayfair, St. James's and the West End is right out the front door – the museums, shops, galleries, parks and more.

Location

Located in the heart of Mayfair, The Beaumont occupies a historic 1926 building on a quiet, landscaped square. Guests can walk to Selfridges on Oxford Street, Duke Street, Bond Street, Mount Street, and the green spaces of Grosvenor Square, Berkeley Square and Hyde Park, and Mayfair's many art galleries. The theatres of London's West End are 5-10 minutes by car. The City of London is 20 minutes by car and Heathrow Airport is around 45 minutes.

Accommodations

All 73 Bedrooms and Suites at The Beaumont have been designed in a soft Art Deco style, with a perfectionist's eye for detail and with the guest's comfort foremost in mind. Large hallways, sliding internal doors for additional privacy and ample wardrobe space are featured in all rooms and suites. Original works of art abound, as well as a large selection of classic in-room movies and books, new and vintage, to entertain. Beautifully lit bathrooms all have heated floors and large rain showers (many also have baths) and traditional D R Harris toiletries. All have king-sized beds, which can be reconfigured as twins.

Presidential Roosevelt Suite

The Beaumont's presidential suite, evokes the glamorous era of the great Transatlantic liners of the 1920s and 30s. With an expansive sitting room and a separate dining room seating eight, plus a pantry kitchen and a guest bathroom, it features cream lacquer paneling, brass inlaid details and parquet timber floors throughout. Subtly patterned silk curtains, hand-made rugs and period antiques and artworks create a discreet and elegant setting. The suite has a large terrace offering uninterrupted views towards the City of London, and can be opened up to include up to five bedrooms, incorporating the entire fifth floor of the hotel, in total privacy. The suite is 1,820 square feet as a one-bedroom suite or 6,525 square feet as a five-bedroom suite.

Dining

The Cub Room- The Cub Room provides a relaxing snug to enjoy a cocktail or drink, serving an all-day snack menu.

The Colony Grill - Inspired by the clubby, sophisticated Grill Rooms that first became popular in New York and London in the 1920s, the Colony Grill serves classic dishes from both sides of the Atlantic. Handsome and comfortable, the Colony exudes old-world glamour.

The American Bar- "Jimmy's" Bar belongs to the great tradition of American Bars that became legendary in London and Paris from the 1920s on, specializing in bourbons, American whiskies and classic cocktails. Walnut interior is subverted by an element of fun, in the form of hundreds of photographs of British and American characters who frequented Mayfair during the period.

Spa & Fitness

The beautiful clean lines of the Art Deco Hammam and Spa were inspired by the Turkish baths at the Royal Automobile Club in Pall Mall and the original New York YMCA. Essential top-to-toe grooming treatments for men and women are offered, with the hammam with dry heat, steam and therapy rooms. A modern gym is open 24 hours.
