

Six Senses Zighy Bay is located on a headland on the northern Musandam Peninsula in the Sultanate of Oman. The idyllic location is set in a land of contrasts, between dramatic mountains and a broad white-sand beachfront. The Musandam Peninsula is an exclave region of the Sultanate of Oman, separated from the rest of the country by the United Arab Emirates.

Zighy Bay is less than a two hour drive from Dubai International Airport and visitors who have entered Dubai do not need an Oman visa to visit the resort in the Musandam Peninsula region.

Six Senses Zighy Bay was recently received a Design award for Best Spa from Travel + Leisure - USA

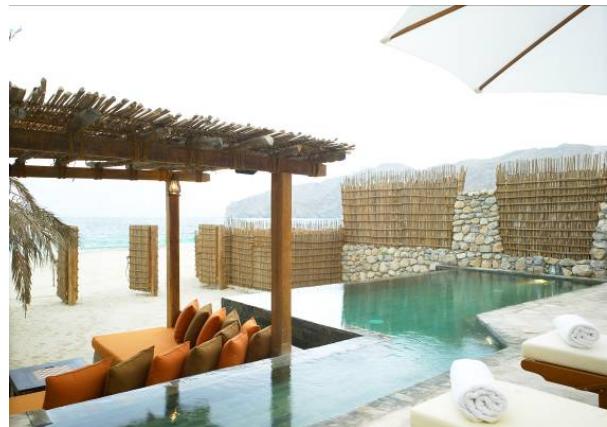

The peninsula's rugged mountains, which rise up over 6,000 feet above the coast and juts into the Strait of Hormuz, have a spectacular fjord-like look, also known as "The Norway of the Middle East". A remote location surrounded by turquoise water and a nearby secluded fishing village.

Guests have the choice of three arrival experiences: A scenic fifteen-minute speed boat trip; a winding drive down from the hill top overlooking the bay; or travel as a companion passenger with the Six Senses Zighy Bay's professional paraglider.
