Celebrate Thanksgiving in the heart of Versailles

27,28 & 29 OF NOVEMBER 2025

An exceptional stay, where the French art of living meets cherished American traditions.

Airelles Château de Versailles, Le Grand Contrôle, invites you to celebrate Thanksgiving amid the splendour of the 18th century — a unique experience combining royal refinement and the warmth of tradition.

Within the historic setting of Le Grand Contrôle, enjoy a weekend of festivities: a Thanksgiving banquet signed by Alain Ducasse, exclusive cultural discoveries, and enchanting activities for children.

PROGRAMME

- Stay in a historic room or suite with a dedicated butler
- Royal breakfast and elegant afternoon tea served daily
- Privileged access to the treasures of Versailles through exclusive tours of the Château and the Central Library
- Private cocktail reception with champagne and canapés in the grand salons

THE THANKSGIVING FEAST

Beneath the gilded ceilings of Le Grand Contrôle, indulge in an exceptional dinner, a tribute to American tradition, with the iconic turkey reimagined through the savoir-faire of Alain Ducasse.

A succession of amuse-bouches, signature dishes, and the grand presentation of the whole bird will precede a parade of delicacies inspired by the spirit of Thanksgiving. A live musician will accompany the evening with an elegant and convivial atmosphere.

FOR CHILDREN

A creative daytime workshop centred around a chocolate turkey, along with themed treasure hunts and games, supervised by our devoted team.

IMMERSION CULTURELLE

Take part in a unique experience through the exhibition Versailles and Diplomacy, shedding light on the French King's pivotal role in supporting American independence.
